Day 4 • Wednesday (Recording Session, Lunch at Blake Shelton's, PRIVATE Jimmy Fortune of the Statler Brothers Concert)

We'll hit the ground running and start at a historic recording studio where hit song after hit song has been recorded! However, the coolest part of being in this studio is that we're going to get the chance to actually RECORD a song too! So YOU will now be part of the history of this studio and YOU get to record in the same place as the legends! Not a musician? Don't worry! We promise you were made for this part and it will be zero stress, all fun. And now you'll be able to start a story with, "This one time, when I went to Nashville to record a track..." And you'll get to take home the most "Nashville" souvenir possible: a song you recorded! How epic is that?!

After our recording session, we'll have lunch and live country music at Blake Shelton's Ole Red followed by free time to explore Broadway to check out the honky tonks, live music, boutiques and souvenir shops. Some options to consider during your free time include: the Ryman Auditorium, one of the earliest homes of the Grand Ole Opry. With acoustics that rival the Mormon Tabernacle, this place is sacred for country artists and musicians and is affectionately called the Mother Church of country music. You could also consider the Goo-Goo Chocolate Co. candy store (and see how the famous Goo-Goo clusters are made), the Johnny Cash Museum, and of course, more honky tonks with live music, including Alan Jackson's AJ's Good Time Bar and Luke Bryan's 32 Bridge.

We'll then have a fabulous buffet dinner and be treated to a private Jimmy Fortune performance! The tenor and 21 year member of the Statler Brothers wrote several of the groups hit songs including Elizabeth, My Only Love, Too Much On My Heart, More Than A Name On A Wall, and Forever (just to name a few). This private performance will blow you away!

Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner Included

We'll check out of the hotel and head to the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum for a chance to take in some of the rich history of Country Music! After that, we'll load the buses and enjoy a boxed lunch on our way to Saint Louis. We'll stop at the City Foundry Food Hall where there are a plethora of great dining options to choose from for dinner on your own. After a few hours for dinner, we'll load the buses and continue East for an overnight in Columbia, MO.
